Access

We are here to welcome you. If you have any access issues, please let us know when you book and we will do all we can to accommodate your request.

Everyone entering the auditoria needs a valid ticket which must be produced on arrival and shown to a steward. ID may be requested when checking student tickets.

If you arrive late we appreciate that you'll want to take your seats on arrival. However to limit disturbance to fellow audience members and artists we may ask you to wait until a suitable break in the performance. Very occasionally this may be the interval.

Glasses, cameras and recording equipment are not allowed in the auditoria. Mobile phones, pagers and digital watches must be turned off at all times during the performance/screening.

Warwick Arts Centre reserves the right to refuse admission in reasonable circumstances or to request any ticket holder to leave the theatre and take appropriate action to enforce this right.

Warwick Arts Centre reserves the right to alter the performance and cast as advertised in advance, where such alterations are necessary owing to unforeseen circumstances.
